DEPOSITION

A

Case of Beek Sampson of No. -

On this 14 day of Oct., 1896, at Mount Carmel, County of Eastman
 State of N.Y., before me, J. M. Town, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Geo. W.
 Smith, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: That age is 54 yrs.

Occupation Farmer.

Residence Miles West, P.O. address, Mount Carmel N.Y.

While in Covington, Ark in 1882, I met a pensioner by the name of Beek Sampson, who turned a bitter humor and was in a neighborhood called "Independence" located in Oregon Canyon - sent off the street before this woman's husband, Thomas Sampson, who used to live in that the side of the river. He married the woman who now knows his pension listwise twelve and fourteen years ago - and then married another young British, according to my information; and I cannot tell you when he married her.

We do, I do not know what service this man performed but I can refer you to a cousin of mine by the name of Geo. F. Smith, who can tell you all about this. His address is in Louisiana St., but I will give you his address - he is near Oregon St.
 Government St.; but he is well known - was a Vault contractor when I was down there.
 You see, he knows that this man left a wife in Boscawenridge Co., Ky.

I have heard the name of this Kentucky wife but I can't call it now. It is my understanding that soldier and Kentucky wife were married; and that the Indiana wife knew it. Can you give me the names of either persons who know the facts in case? My cousin knows all about it; and was a cousin of the soldier.

I have no preference in the claim. I understand the questions well and my answer on each is grounded so and true. John W. Smith

Case of Belle Sandless et al. No. -

On this 1st day of Oct., 1896, at Stockholm, County of Thompson
 State of N.Y., before me, F. M. Farnum, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Henry Pagen, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer
 truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: My age is 50 yrs.

Occupation Farmer.

Residence 4 miles S.W. of D.D. address

Stockholm, N.Y.

That Mrs. M. Smith was telling me that he was at the house of Mr. Sandless (in Enonville, Illinois), who is presumed to widow of Jane Thompson Sandless, when I knew in Brockington Co. N.Y. at Clonspont.
 Mr. Bird Smith of Clonspont means the school house; and had a wife and two children then - his wife that he had in Brockington Co., the lady there and then was no Chinese. This lady's wife was named "Mary Sandless (nee Bush or Russell), and was living in 1887. (Annals 1887.)

That it has been ever since 1874 or so that the lady his wife "Mary" Sandless;
 and lived in that country up until 1887.
 This woman was still unmarried and bearing his name. Know nothing about what caused the separation but the soldier was a worthless sort of fellow.

I can't state what command he served in or where he enlisted.

I can give me the names of people around Clonspont, N.Y. who know the ~~lady~~ this lady's wife; and who would

from the service he performed;

Original.

Here give the claimant's statement as briefly and as compactly as possible.

At Buzzard Roost Mt. Co, while retreating down Brown again dislocated ankle. It was never set by a surgeon.
Since then when he walks a mile or two, his ankle swells, gets painful, and gives out. Both collar bones were dislocated at their proximal extremities by the weight of knapsack. He was about 14 years old at the time.

Upon examination we find the following objective conditions: Pulse rate, 84;
respiration, 18; temperature, 99.4; height, 5 feet 10 inches; weight, 174 pounds; age, 43 years.

Here give a full description of the disability, in accordance with pars. 5, 6, 31, 52, &c., of Book of Instructions for 1889

There is a little deformity of right ankle. There is a depression on the lower part of ankle, as if there was a partial luxation now. The ankle is not swollen now. The proximal ends of the collar bones, are markedly prominent, and when he throws the shoulders outward, these ends recede, as if they were loose. But they cannot be moved up or down, or otherwise by the fingers.
We are doubtful whether there is anything wrong with collar bones, and if there is, it is doubtful when the injury was sustained. The man is very fat he hasn't quit fighting. Otherwise his health is perfect.

Sir:

December 7, 1896

I have the honor
to submit the report in the claim of Isadore Dander.

From the report of the U.S. Pension Agent at Indianapolis I am led to believe the papers pertain to one Isadore Dander Ct. 383799 m. s.
Thomas J. Dander of 3460 Lee. St.
The preliminary report was made by Special E. v. F. M. Lowe and it came to me for examination as to legal withstand etc.

John D. Smith for whose evidence it came to me knows little or nothing of value but he referred me to W. S. Bailey as one likely to be able to give some information but he does know nothing as to soldiers service or whether this pensioner is soldier widow.

The husband? of the deceased
pensioner who is sister of a house to it from has about two small children and the husband was killed in Casey Co. Ind. and I think even be identified from the data therein.

I have been unable so far to secure evidence of actual cohabitation.

I interviewed the woman (Samuel A.) mentioned by Mr. Bailey today but he tells me he will swear at any time or place that he never had intercourse with jailinines but that he not always been at her house in the day when his showers were not so good he might have had a different tale to tell me, he also denies having reported from his wife an account of jailinines. (P) as I do not feel that I have exhausted all sources of information, I should longer hold papers hoping to get more definite evidence. I believe jailinines deserves dropping from the rolls and I submit the papers for such consideration as is deemed proper.

Very respectfully,
R. S. Haas,
Special Examiner.
